

OLAHEY WELLNESS

A Friendly Hello to Happy Living

About Olahey Wellness Pvt. Ltd.

Engineering Innovation. Crafting Wellness. Empowering Brands.

At Olahey Wellness Pvt. Ltd., we believe that every successful beverage or functional food begins with a powerful idea—and the right manufacturing partner to bring it to life. As a leading Contract Development and Third-Party Manufacturing (CDMO) company, we specialize in developing and manufacturing innovative functional beverages, nutritional foods, and wellness products for brands across India and global markets.

Driven by a leadership team with a legacy of industry expertise since 2002, Olahey combines over two decades of knowledge in product innovation, food science, manufacturing excellence, and regulatory compliance. Our experienced professionals have worked with emerging startups, established FMCG companies, healthcare brands, and multinational organizations, helping them transform concepts into successful, market-ready products.

Our state-of-the-art manufacturing facility is built on globally recognized quality standards, operating under FSSC 22000, GMP, and HACCP-compliant systems, ensuring uncompromising food safety, quality consistency, and manufacturing excellence. With advanced production technologies and flexible manufacturing capabilities, we offer a comprehensive portfolio that includes functional beverages, regular liquid products, carbonated beverages, aseptic filling, retort beverages, powdered nutrition products, protein bars, healthy snacks, and customized wellness formulations.

Beyond manufacturing, Olahey serves as an innovation partner. From product ideation and formulation development to packaging selection, regulatory support, pilot trials, commercial production, and supply chain assistance, we provide complete end-to-end solutions under one roof. Our commitment to research, consumer trends, and sustainable manufacturing enables our partners to launch differentiated products with speed, confidence, and quality.

At Olahey Wellness, we don't simply manufacture products—we create brands, build partnerships, and deliver innovative wellness solutions that inspire healthier lifestyles.

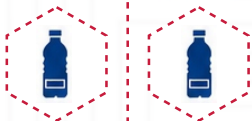

Our Vision
